

Getting Out, Staying Out

And Starting Over

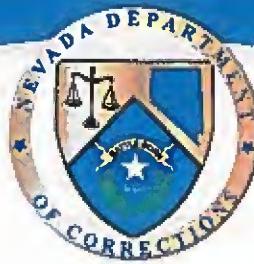

Out on Your Own

Tools for Restarting Your Life

9101 Getting Out, Staying Out and Starting Over

It's not news that half the people who get out of prison end up going back. Which half are you planning to be in? If you've decided that there's no way you want to end up back in prison, this booklet will help you look at the things you can do to make that wish a reality.

RE-ENTRY VISION

To reduce recidivism in Nevada by creating a strong system for released inmates through providing opportunities for employment, housing, counseling and assistance with basic needs.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of NDOC Re-entry is to enhance public safety by providing effective programs and services which prepare offenders for successful reentry into the community.

"You must take personal responsibility. You cannot change the circumstances, the seasons, or the wind, but you can change yourself. That is something you have charge of."

~Jim Rohn

Nevada Re-entry Services ■ 3955 W Russell Road ■ Las Vegas, NV 89118
Phone: (702) 486-9941 ■ Fax: (702) 486-9969

LIFE SKILLS EDUCATION
BY AZTEC SOFTWARE

Aztec Software
51 Commerce St
Springfield, NJ 07081
phone: (800) 273-0033
fax: (973) 255-1655
www.lifeskillsed.com

Your Re-Entry Action Guide!

Jam-packed with essential personal, job search, and employability information for transitioning to the world of work this handy pocket guide will help you quickly:

- assess your motivated abilities and skills (MAS)
- complete job applications and write resumes
- conduct job interviews and follow up effectively
- negotiate compensation and accept job offers

- It also covers important life skills information relating to:
• education and training
• attitudes and goals
• housing and transportation
• health and wellness
• financial planning
• community services

Successful re-entry into and advancement within today's workplace requires basic preparation and organization. If you complete each section of this pocket guide and refer to it frequently, you should be well prepared to make smart re-entry decisions. Best of all, you'll be well positioned to navigate today's challenging job market and economy!

The Re-Entry Employment and Life Skills

Third Edition

Pocket Guide

Ronald L. Krannich, Ph.D.

IMPACT PUBLICATIONS

We Are Impact Publications
Writing for the Military Transition Workforce
www.impactpublications.com
Career & Business
$3.95

ISBN 978-1-57023-392-0

50395

9 781570 233920